7:00 PM - Gathering and Welcome Music

Musical prelude by the St. Genevieve Community Choir, directed by Rachel Stern.

7:10 PM - Welcome and Introduction

Rev. Colette Mullins will offer words of welcome and context for this annual gathering of Cleveland's faith communities. The theme for 2027 is: 'That They May All Be One.'

7:20 PM - Reading from the Torah

Leviticus 19:18 - 'Love your neighbor as yourself.' Rabbi Miriam Goldfarb, Temple Israel of Cleveland. Brief reflection: The stranger within your gates.

7:30 PM - Reading from the Quran

Surah Al-Hujurat 49:13 - 'O humanity! Indeed We created you from a male and a female, and made you into peoples and tribes so that you may know one another.' Imam Rashid Hassan, Cleveland Islamic Center.

7:40 PM - Reading from the Gospel

John 17:20-23 - The High Priestly Prayer of Jesus for unity among all believers. Father Thomas Murphy, St. Augustine Catholic Parish.

7:50 PM - Joint Prayer for Peace

All five faith leaders will offer a responsive prayer together, drawing on their respective traditions' prayers for peace, justice, and reconciliation.

8:00 PM - Community Witness

Rev. James Washington, First Baptist Church of Cleveland, will deliver the central address: 'Our Common Table in a Divided World.'

8:20 PM - Musical Offering

Joint choir of St. Genevieve and First Baptist will perform two selections: 'Dona Nobis Pacem' and a traditional spiritual arranged for combined ensemble.

8:30 PM - Closing Blessing

Each faith leader will offer a blessing from their tradition simultaneously. Benediction by Rev. Mullins.

8:40 PM - Reception

Light refreshments provided by member communities. All are welcome to remain for conversation.
