Elena's Empanadas, the Family Way

For the dough

- Flour, salt, cold butter, one egg, cold water
- Rest the dough one hour before rolling

For the filling

- Ground beef browned with onion and garlic
- Cumin, oregano, paprika, chopped olives, a little broth

Method

Roll the dough thin, cut rounds, spoon the filling, fold and crimp. Bake until golden, about 25 minutes. Mama sends a fresh batch on a rotation, and these are the closest to hers I can manage.

Serve with cafe con leche on her spice blend. Best the day they are made, good the next morning too.
